

ARASAN GANESAN POLYTECHNIC COLLEGE, SIVAKASI

Inception Day (03-08-2013)

Arasan Ganesan Polytechnic College, a well established aided institution founded in 1981 celebrated its 33rd Inception Day on 3rd August. Dr. Siva Subramanian former Vice Chancellor, Bharathiar University and Advisor Norul Islam University gave the keynote address. He listed down eight values namely Self-discipline, Self-control, Self-esteem, Speaking truth, Living along with nature concern for Society, Practising the values of the land and Good Citizenship to be abided by the students. All the new entrants of the polytechnic, 330 in strength were taken around the campus, to acquire first-hand knowledge about the infrastructural facilities in Arasan Ganesan Polytechnic College. An elocution contest, Quiz and Thirukkural recitation were conducted. The winners were given prizes, by the Chief Guest.

Senior teachers and Headmasters of various schools in and around Sivakasi were invited and a video show was arranged to get a detailed perspective of our infrastructure, teaching learning process, placement opportunities and non-formal courses.

Department In-charge